On the 31st inst. the Grand Master of British Columbia will lay the corner stone of the new Masonic cemetery at New Westminster. The Grand Master will be assisted by the brethren of the Grand Lodge. In the evening there will be a ball and supper. It strikes us that our British neighbors come out pretty strong in mixing the grave and gay in thus celebrating the opening of a graveyard by a ball and feast.

A notorious character was arrested at New Westminster last week. The Colonist says: Everything about him indicated the gentleman—dress, carriage, air—all were those of a Chesterfield. The name of the old man is Thomas Stevenson; his age is about sixty five, and if all accounts be true he is one of the most accomplished forgers and imposters on the continent. He was perfectly cool and collected, and was followed to the barracks by a large and curious crowd. On the way down from Cariboo in the custody of a Constable, Stevenson spoke of the arrest as a mistake which required only his presence at Victoria to set right.

The Would-be Assassins in Spain

MADRID, July 21.—The would be assassins of the king, together with twenty seven accomplices, have been arrested. Admiral Topete warned the authorities against dangerous demonstrations. The escape of the King was narrow. The horses attached to the royal carriage received several pistol shots.

MADRID, July 22.—A large sum of money was found on one of the prisoners engaged in the attempted assassination. It is believed that the assassins were the hired instruments of a political conspiracy. Previous to the attack the King had been warned anonymously that his life was in danger. At the time of the attack a sharp engagement occurred between the would-be assassins and the police and King's escort. His Majesty himself was anxious to participate, but was prevented. It is believed that the parties arrested were the same who assassinated General Prim.

ROME, July 21.—There is great rejoicing in Italian circles at the escape of the King and Queen of Spain from assassination. Rome is covered with flags. Manifestations of sympathy ... were made yesterday in front of the Spanish legation.

Sales in open Board on the start were also large. A dispatch from Pioche announcing that the Old Lady had widened out two and a half feet of the highest grade ore sent that stock up at a bound.

Jose Norcisa Rosales, convicted of manslaughter in Monterey county and sentenced to 5 years in the State Prison, arrived here en route this evening.

Smith alias Allis is still in the calaboose, no satisfactory bail having yet been obtained.

The Coroner is holding an inquest on the ... case this evening.

The weather is peculiarly unfavorable for the meeting this evening, the cold wind blowing almost a gale driving a dense fog before it. Nevertheless three stands are being erected in the street in front of the Russ House. Platt's Hall is already crowded and the ratification meeting appears to be a very decided success. Platt's Hall at 10 P M still continues packed almost to suffocation and speaking is going on from two stands in the street. Frank Pixley was loudly called for even before the meeting in the hall was organized, and spoke over an hour, making one of his peculiarly characteristic speeches, and being applauded enthusiastically from first to last. He announced at the close that before the campaign closed he would call a meeting at the same hall exclusively of his old Republican friends and companions whom he would endeavor to convince that he was still true to his Republican principles while they were falling away from the faith in following Grant. J D Hambleton is now speaking.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES

LOS ANGELES, July 22.—A special from Anaheim says last evening about six o'clock at Goldstein's saloon a man named Horton, of Arizona, was playing cards with Constable D Davis when a dispute arose between them about the game, and came to blows. In the scuffle Horton took Davis' pistol from him, beat him over the head, and at the same time telling him he could kill him if he wished, but did not want to do it. Davis called on C H Lehman, also a Constable, for assistance. Lehman stepped up to arrest Horton when the latter fired on him, the ball passing through the bowels from in front and lodging in the small of the back near the spine. Davis procured another pistol and five or six shots were exchanged. Horton made an attempt to escape, and in the chase fired four shots at the officer and was fired at by the posse in pursuit ten or fifteen times. They finally captured him without being hurt or hurting any one else. Horton is now in jail here and is thought to be one of the Nevada escaped convicts. Lehman's wound is mortal. He is slowly sinking. The affair caused great excitement in Anaheim to day.

STOCKTON, July 22.—The Board of Equalization now in session refused to reduce the assessment on the property of the Central Pacific Railroad in this county. The property is assessed at nine thousand dollars per mile. The railroad company desired it placed at four thousand dollars.

Frank Pixley is expected to address the Liberal Republicans at this place on Thursday night next.

A tournament under the auspices of the San Joaquin Valley Agricultural Society will be one of the features of the Fair next September.

PETALUMA, July 22.—Mrs Kinney, the murderess, was examined to-day before Justice Cavanaugh. Barclay Henley, District Attorney, for the people; George Pearce for the defense. The court room was densely crowded during the day, hundreds being unable to obtain admission. No evidence of importance was elicited. The prisoner has made no statement as yet. She will be held to appear before the grand jury. The question of admitting her to bail will be argued at 1 o'clock P M to-morrow.

The Perils of the Campaign

THE DANGER THAT HORACE GREELEY WILL OVERWORK HIMSELF FOR THE GOOD OF THE COUNTRY

[From the Cincinnati Commercial.]

Really this business of wood chopping on the part of H G, must be abandoned, at least for a time. The New York papers tell about his extraordinary struggles in the chopping line in the woods at Chappaqua last Saturday. The sun was blazing hot all day and about scorched the life out of things. Yet H G wielded his ax with all possible intensity in the very heat of the day, while the thermometer was near one hundred degrees, and while a crowd of people stood looking at him. In one of the reports we read:

He divested himself of his coat, vest and hat, and went to work chopping down an immense maple tree. Having finished this, he went to work on the next, and so on until he had no less than four. By this time temperature was getting very warm, and in order to be in better condition for climbing trees he peeled off his white shirt, and with nothing on but his pants and undershirt, he went to work.

In another of the accounts we read that some of his friends among the spectators remonstrated with him. The reporter says that those of them who had never before seen the philosopher at this exercise, watched his movements with apprehension, watched them with feelings of terror and were uneasy at his danger. The reporter adds:

When the reckless Sage hopped boldly from a limb fifteen feet from the ground with his ax in his hand and the knotty limb bent under his weight, Allen turned pale with horror.

"This won't do, Scovel," said Allen, "see what a slip might do! If that limb gave way or those smooth soled shoes slipped, or that ax rebound and cut his leg, and he should double up over the limb and fall that distance to the ground"—and his voice became husky with the terror of the situation.

Scovel—Now you be easy. He's done this for fifteen years and he's as safe there as you are on the stump.

Allen—But that's no surety at all. The pitcher may go to the well you know any number of times and be broken at last. One false blow or a slip might be the death of the liberal party. The National Committee must prot... ings ... this.

The Philosopher meantime, unconscious of the animated discussion in his interest going on below, continued calmly trimming his trees.

We don't think that the National Committee should interfere in the matter at all. If they did they would probably leave Chappaqua with something in their ears. But we have no doubt H G might be induced to consider the case. The weather is dreadful hot. It cannot be necessary to chop any more trees at Chappaqua this season. H G is sixty years of age, and violent exertions at that period of life are not conducive to health. He certainly would be none the worse of a rest now that he has got a respite from his editorial labors. We cannot but think that the ... are worthy of serious attention. It is just the time he should ... first ... Kool.

The nomination of Greeley at Baltimore by a packed and non-deliberative body will be the formal dissolution of the Democratic party. With its dissolution there perishes the last party that ever professed fidelity to law, to the Constitution, or to treaty faith given. There remains for us then only mobs, Radical Grant-ites and radical Greeleyites! Reduced to the bayonets are our only protection. Grant has at least the education and bearing of a soldier. Greeley knows only the discipline of a broom ..."

DR. ABORN
HAS RETURNED TO PORTLAND
Evidences of His Success while on Puget Sound

[From the Morning Herald]

We notice the return of Dr Aborn who has been paying a professional visit to the Sound country, where he has performed a great number of miraculous cures and operations. The Olympia Transcript speaks of him in the following terms: "We call attention to the cards in to-day's paper in reference to the treatment and skill of Dr Aborn. He has been on the Sound but a few weeks, but in that time he has given such great benefit to many of our citizens that it is particularly worthy of ..."

A Lady Nearly Blind for 8 Years can now See to Read Fine Print, which is Due to the Skill of Dr. Aborn

PORTLAND, Oregon, July 16, 1872.

TO THE PUBLIC:—FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE afflicted I hereby state that my wife had been afflicted with granulated lids and inflamed sore eyes (caused by the measles) for the last eight years. They had become so bad that she could scarcely see to walk, and the lids were inverted so that the eye lashes were turned in against the ball of the eye, which would soon have caused total blindness. One eye was so near totally destroyed that she could only just discern daylight; but now, thanks to the knowledge of DR. ABORN and his skillful operations, her lids are cured—they now raise up from the ball of the eye naturally. The eye-lashes do not turn in against the ball now, but they assume their natural position. This was effected by a new surgical operation performed upon each eye by DR. ABORN. The granulations are removed, and the inflammation, cloud and spots are so completely removed from the eyes that she can see to read fine print. We would have applied to the Doctor sooner than we did, but for outsiders trying to persuade us that the Doctor was not skilled in his profession, and that he would put her eyes out. But upon investigation I was convinced that he has never put any one's eyes out, but found all his patients, and those who had been under his treatment, unanimous in their praise of the Doctor's great success and skill in those delicate operations. I have been living in Seattle, W T, for the past six years, but have now removed to Kittitas Valley, W T.

MIRACULOUS CURE

John L. Clark, of Olympia, who has been so severely afflicted for years and considered hopeless, is now fast regaining his health under the treatment of Dr Aborn. The following is Mr Clark's statement concerning himself:

TO THE PUBLIC

For two years I have been severely afflicted with Catarrh, Throat, Bronchial and Lung Disease, and Ulceration of the stomach. Have been treated by sixteen different physicians without any benefit; expended over $5,000; had been given up to die. Two weeks ago I placed myself under the care of Dr. Aborn, and to my great joy and surprise I have improved wonderfully, which all my friends can testify. I can now eat and ... my food and my ... is healed. Have gained ... fully in strength and flesh, and I now confidently entertain hope that, under Dr. Aborn's skillful treatment, I shall be entirely cured.

ANOTHER REMARKABLE CURE.

[From the Olympia Tribune.]

Elsewhere in our local columns will be found a letter from Mr John L Clark, testifying to the professional skill of Dr Aborn. Read it. Mr Clark is among the best known of our citizens, and the fact of his having been in poor health for some years is equally well known to many of his acquaintances. The testimony he bears to the success of the Doctor's treatment in his case is of no doubtful character, and should add largely to the reputation of the latter as a physician.

EYES TREATED

[From the Olympia Tribune.]

This morning Dr Aborn performed a new surgical operation upon the eyes of a lady from Seattle—Mrs Shoudy—who we are informed has been nearly blind for ten years. By this operation and the Doctor's skillful treatment she will have her eyesight perfectly and permanently restored. He also performed a similar operation upon Mr Barnes ... of Tumwater, with a like happy result.

ANOTHER EDITORIAL FROM THE OLYMPIA DAILY TRIBUNE, JULY 8.

DRAWING TO A CLOSE.—The visit of Dr Aborn. To-morrow will be his last day in Olympia. During his brief sojourn in our midst he has effected some miraculous cures and performed several surgical operations, the success of which have materially augmented his reputation for skill. The persons who have been relieved by Dr Aborn will gratefully remember his visit to the Sound, which it is hoped he will soon repeat.

[From the Seattle Dispatch]

Dr Aborn has spent a week in this city, during which time he has treated many cases of chronic diseases of the eye, ear and throat, with almost miraculous success, restoring sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, and speech to the almost dumb, causing the hope to the afflicted that he will soon favor them with another visit.

REMARKABLE ... OF DR. ABORN'S SKILL.—John Webster, blacksmith and ex member of our Legislature, now a resident of Seattle and a candidate for Probate Judge, publishes a testimonial in the last ... of our paper testifying that after having been deaf for over 20 years he has been restored to hearing.

T[illegible] MORNING, JUL[illegible] [illegible]72

Greeley's Testimony for Grant

[illegible] Mr Greeley [illegible] Grant [illegible] his Administration [illegible] during the ten months that have elapsed Mr Greeley [illegible] been unable to attempt to show that neither Grant nor his policy deserved any credit for the brightening financial outlook. But Grant and his policy deserve the very highest. Suppose his policy had been of a different kind from what it has been. Suppose he had collected the revenue in the reckless manner of which we had so much previous experience? Suppose the debt had been increased as it was in the latter part of Johnson's Administration—suppose the wasteful expenditure of Johnson's time had been continued—suppose we were experimenting with greenback theory and the repudiation theory—does anybody suppose that our bonds would not now be at or near par, or that gold would be quoted at the present price, or our credit would stand where it does abroad? To ask the question is to answer it and to show the absurdity of the reasoning of the Democratic organ.

Mr Greeley began to fall out with President Grant about the patronage of the New York Custom House. The attacks at first were guarded, but afterwards grew more bitter and intense. Messrs Sumner and Schurz attacked the Administration, and gave Greeley courage. He gradually swung the Tribune over to the opposition, and was rewarded by being nominated for President. But his hearty approval of the Administration remains on record. This approval was manifested on a multitude of occasions after all the charges now brought against Grant—his alleged "gift-taking," "nepotism," and the like,—had been trumped up by the opposition. In spite of all these stale charges Grant was good enough for Greeley till the difference about "patronage" arose. It was the President's duty, not Fenton's or Greeley's, to enforce the laws and collect the revenues, but the latter didn't see it in this light. They were not permitted to control the Custom House. Hence Reform.

Mr Greeley is now a candidate for President. His journal, the Tribune, is the most bitter and unscrupulous of all the opponents of Grant. It attacks and vilifies his Administration without stint, but with perfect freedom from the restraints of truth. But it is not forgotten that the Tribune spoke otherwise of Grant when it had no motive but to tell the truth and give credit where it belonged. The policy and action of the Administration are precisely the same as when Mr Greeley, only a few months back, found them so entirely worthy of commendation. It will not do to say that Greeley changed on finding himself deceived in Grant, for Grant's public course and private character are the same in all particulars as when Greeley, but a short time ago, awarded him such hearty praise.

German Sentiment.

Senator Schurz recently declared that the "nomination of Greeley was enough to disgust one forever with American politics." Yet Mr Schurz supports Greeley, indirectly, it is true, but still supports him. For this inconsistency he is taken to task severely by some of the principal German papers of the country. One of these journals is the Anzeiger des Westens, a paper opposed to the Administration, but convinced that Grant is preferable to Greeley. That journal tells Mr Schurz that, "should Greeley be elected he must take upon himself his portion of the guilt of the coming evil." It tells Schurz that he would be more useful to his country as a leader of a resolute Reform minority than in the degrading position of election runner for Greeley. Also that he cannot justify his support of Greeley on principle. One of the most evident facts of the campaign is the refusal of the great German element of the country to be whipped in for Greeley. Democratic and Republican German papers alike oppose him. Only yesterday we had a statement by telegraph that two more German papers of New York which have supported the "Liberal" movement to this time, have come out for Grant.

Rival Enterprises

It appears that Vanderbilt and S[illegible] the one representing the New York Central, the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern and the Union Pacific Railroads, forming a line from New York to Ogden, and the other representing the Pennsylvania Central and its almost numberless connections, are still actively at work as rivals to secure through lines from the Atlantic to the shores of the Pacific. It is the belief of San Francisco journals that the Central Pacific will ultimately fall under Vanderbilt's management, which will give him the last link for his through line. [illegible] is making great exertions to obtain a through line by another route. This route is the extreme southern one, and is known as the Texas [illegible] New Orleans and San Diego [illegible] for its completion. The Pennsylvania Company intend to push the work with all the energy they can command. This is an entirely different enterprise from the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad, which is the [illegible] of St Louis and [illegible]

The [illegible] says [illegible] of the new potato crop in Yamhill [illegible] with some sort of eruption which settles [illegible] a multitude of scales. Write to Horace Greeley for advice, brother Upton.

[illegible] county finances do not appear to be in extra good condition. The County Clerk's annual report made on the 1st inst shows the amount of outstanding county warrants to be $23,[illegible]

The M[illegible] says: Benjamin Snipes sold to Nicholas McKay, better known as "Old Nick," forty head of two year old heifers at forty dollars per head, taken as they came from the band. They are represented as being a fine lot of graded stock considerable above the average. During the spring Mr Snipes has sold eleven young blooded bulls to different parties. The highest price paid was two hundred dollars and the lowest seventy dollars—the whole amounting to one thousand two hundred and ninety dollars. He has now a contract to deliver four hundred head of beef steers to parties on Puget Sound, one hundred head of which are already en route for that section of country.

THE TERRITORIES

Serious runaways reported at Olympia.

I. H. Whitehouse has been elected Mayor of Kalama.

The county prisoners in jail at Olympia are to be employed in making boots and shoes.

Cougars are slaughtering sheep on the farm of Gen H Stevens, in Washington Territory.

Byron E Daniels has been appointed private secretary to Gov Ferry of Washington Territory.

Vegetables are not to be had in the Kalama market for love or money. Sorry for the poor Kalamities.

During the three months last past it is said only three plural marriages have taken place within the limits of Utah Territory.

Henry Smith, the ferryman on the Duwamish, near Seattle, burst a blood vessel and died while crossing that river on the 11th inst.

Judging from the delinquent tax list in Seattle papers nearly the whole property of that town must be up for sale for delinquent taxes.

Preliminary steps have been taken towards the formation of a society to be composed of officers and men of the Union army, who are residing at Seattle and other Sound ports.

According to the [illegible] the hotels in Olympia scarcely rate as first class hash houses. That paper says they "are all so badly kept that the proprietors are ashamed of them."

The total number of acres of land disposed of at the three land offices in Washington Territory during the month of June was twenty eight thousand four hundred and twenty five.

An Olympian lately returned from a visit to Oregon and found that several officious neighbors had carried away all his carpenter tools, and he is now looking for some of the thieves.

An Elko, Nevada, dispatch of the 17th instant says: Advices received from the Stevenson Snake river branch of the Dr Hayden Government Yellowstone Exploring Expedition, which left Ogden some weeks since, dated Fort Hall, Idaho, July 12th, state that after a ten days' march from Ogden the party arrived at Fort Hall. They report important scientific researches along the route. Professor Bradley reports finding the Quebec Group, of the Silurian age, being the first found in the Rocky Mountains. They also report having made large collections in the animal, mineral and vegetable kingdoms. The party are now provisioned for two months and will proceed up Snake River Valley, taking the topography of the country to Teton Peaks, via Henry's Fork. A passage of the Peaks is to be forced, if possible, to effect a junction with Dr Hayden's party in the great Geyser region. The party are all well, and will break camp on the morning of the 13th.

For some weeks past there seems to have been considerable commotion among the Indians in Boise county, and some fears were felt by the whites of an outbreak. Band of Bannacks have been off their reservation, prowling about through the settlements, committing minor depredations and creating a general feeling of alarm. It seems that an unusually large number of these rascals are now assembling on the Weiser river. The total number now collected on that stream is estimated at 2,000, very few of them being women or children. The bucks are said to be well armed and have a good supply of ammunition. A large number of the [illegible] are said to have met the Bannacks on the Weiser, ostensibly for the purpose of trade, but the whites are very justly suspicious of their intentions, and the settlers are far from feeling safe, surrounded as they are by so many savages. At last accounts however no outbreak had occurred, though we infer from news to the last number of the B[illegible] that the suspense is great and the danger imminent.

Part of the "Reform" Bargain

From the N. Y. Times

Gov. Hoffman is the chief partner on the Democratic side in the Tammany Greeley coalition. He is to be re-elected Governor if the game succeeds, with a contingent interest in the United States Senatorship. He is entirely worthy of the part assigned to him in the last Tammany [illegible]. As Mayor he assisted at the origin of the Tammany frauds and made the first step in stealing possible [illegible] by signing fraudulent warrants and by [illegible] to the one work. As Governor he [illegible] give the [illegible] He is very [illegible] sible for the whole business just as Hall is responsible for the thefts of Ingersoll, since without his assent the frauds would have been impossible. If one is to be known by the company he keeps, what manner of man must the Union candidate be?

PAY [illegible] TO THE SLAVES.—It is the opinion of Union loving men throughout the country that during the late war the freedom of the slaves was purchased at sufficient cost by the country. It is now proposed that we pay for them again and pay the amount too to the very persons who commenced the rebellion and who had been enjoying for a long series of years the fruits of the unrequited labors of the enslaved. To show the animus that now prevails in certain localities we quote from one Liberal Democratic journal published south of Mason and Dixon's line, and which we consider entirely suggestive at this particular time. Says the [illegible]: "If Greeley is elected and the Government properly organized, why may we not successfully claim payment from the public treasury for the slaves of which we were dispossessed by act of Government? [illegible] The owners have every [illegible] [illegible] can give him [illegible] that end. The amount is only [illegible] millions, and when that is paid through the kind offices of the expected new administration we may [illegible] for a further demand upon the public [illegible] of the country in the shape of damages for losses sustained in the South by the [illegible] and other enter[illegible] it were deemed necessary to put an [illegible] and to preserve the [illegible]

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

Sir: We have learned from the O[illegible] and other papers that the State Teachers' Association will meet at Eugene on [illegible] [illegible]th, and that one of the objects will be to prepare a comprehensive school law to submit to the next Legislature.

It is my impression that the Association will be composed [illegible] representative [illegible] The Association [illegible] teachers [illegible] with a few of the teachers from the public schools of Eugene [illegible]. If these gentlemen will suggest a few improvements in the school laws as it stands, they may do considerable good. But if given over to the vain longings of enthusiasm they will [illegible] to strike out and sections to section until they produce a school code which rivals in completeness and in the advanced stand taken on disputed points the code of Massachusetts, Michigan or Illinois, it may be a credit to them as educators. It may show that their ideal is very high, that they have broad views on this subject, that they see clearly the end toward which they must travel, and where we will have to arrive before our journeyings cease.

But after all their well meant and really meritorious efforts, the fruit of their labor may be as unsuited to the condition of Oregon as was the elaborate constitution written by the celebrated John Locke to the early settlers of the American wildwoods.

Every law should be an answer to a want felt by the people interested.

Now my impression is that a few changes might be made in the law, and perhaps a few additions which would meet the public approbation and be beneficial to our common schools. But the great body of the school law both in substance and language should remain unaltered.

One point I would suggest. Our school law recognizes children of four years as pupils. I have heard many express the opinion that such are too young to attend school. But those who formed the law and the many who send such children to school are not of this opinion. But good reasons can be given for changing the age from four to six.

First, it is unhealthful for children of that age to be confined in school six hours of each day. Second, they are too young to be safely trusted out of doors to play when the school has not a good inclosed play ground—which very few schools have.

They are too young to go home alone, so they must wait until they can get a protector. The branches taught in most of the schools extend from the alphabet to the cube root.

The fewer classes a pupil recites in the fewer times he leaves his seat.

The teacher cannot pay much attention to each little child, so it sits on a hard seat until it becomes wearied and fretful. And it wonders in its childish way what it has done to deserve such punishment, and why the larger pupils take so long to recite, and what the use is of its sitting there all the time just trying to keep still.

And if it does not acquire a lasting disgust for school, it is because it is too young to remember anything over vacation.

Again, our schools are too crowded. This change would give them perceptible relief. It is, at the very best, useless to send children of four years to school, because the child who commences at six will be as far advanced in education at nine as the one who commenced at four.

I have examined the laws of some of the States and find that the legal school age of children in Michigan, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New York, Ohio at five. It is the same in the Province of Ontario. In Illinois the age was five but has since been changed to six. It is six in the District of Columbia.

On looking at these figures we should not forget that these States have a great many skillful primary teachers, many who have specially qualified themselves for the task of training small children, that their schools are better graded, their school houses larger and better seated.

I cannot illustrate this better than by giving a description of one of the primary rooms of Cleveland, Ohio schools, as given by a visitor: "A large, airy room, with wide windows, whence the morning sunlight comes freely in. One half of the room was occupied by small, low tables, laid off in squares of black and buff. Seated at these tables were perhaps two dozen children, girls and boys not older than seven years. They were evidently from the best families of Cleveland, handsome, well bred, well dressed darlings of the household. The other half of the room was occupied, and was used for the playing of games and other exercises. The exercise I witnessed was called an occupation. Before each child was placed a small box containing a cube composed of eight small cubes of wood. The teacher asked 'Children, what have you before you?' 'A cube.' 'How many sides has it?' Then all the little hands were busy counting. Of course not all could answer correctly, but in time even the youngest ones could do so. Then they counted the edges and corners and were instructed to call them by their right names. A further step in the exercise led the children to divide the compound cube into halves, quarters, and eighths. Afterwards they were shown that by placing their blocks upon the colored squares of their tables, according to certain rules of symmetry, they could build beautiful forms. The lesson was short, and when it was finished the teacher gave them permission to play with their blocks, each child building according to the dictates of his own fancy. How the little things enjoyed showing to each other and to their kind teacher the wonderful things that they could make. After ten or fifteen minutes of this recreation each child was required to return the blocks to the box in order to place the box on the corner of his table and leave it there until collected. This plan comprises many occupations: weaving stripes of colored paper [illegible] to various patterns, [illegible] upon card board, drawing upon card board, drawing upon slates, counting sticks, memorizing simple verses, singing, moulding moist clay into simple forms, as balls, [illegible] etc. What delight must children take in the clay moulding. Blessed memories [illegible] what [illegible]. The next exercise was a game participated in by all the children and the teacher, and also in this case by two of the four mothers who were present. The games are all accompanied by singing, and are intended to give the children variety [illegible] and at the same time exercise of the various parts of the body.

"One thing that pleased me much in this school was the beautiful [illegible] that it afforded the children. There were no strict regulations as to keeping in order. The children were required simply to be well behaved, giving attention to the teacher when she desired it, at other times being free to converse with each other."

If any one who is acquainted with the primary schools of Oregon, or with the mixed schools, look on this picture and on this, and then decide whether we can reasonably send children to our schools as young as would be justified in many parts of the East.

This may seem a small point to many, but it would be more good to make the change suggested than to pass fifty elegantly worded resolutions at the Association.

This however is only one change I think there are [illegible]
W. I. W.

Cardinal Cullen [illegible] Archbishop [illegible] has issued a pastoral in which he speaks very despairingly of [illegible] the preaching at the [illegible] church of St Alban's, London, which contrasted [illegible] unfavorably with those of St Alban. In reference to the remarks of Mr Justice Keogh on the priests of [illegible] he says that remorseless [illegible] such as Cromwell and [illegible] have been canonized in the popular estimation, and as a further illustration of growing infidelity, he adds that the Professors of Trinity College, Dublin, are openly contradicting the Gospel by teaching that the wicked shall not be punished with eternal torments.

POLITICAL NOTES

The Raleigh N[illegible] gives cheering reports from the canvass in that State, and believes it will go Republican in the August election.

[illegible] members of the Democratic State Committee of Michigan have [illegible] their resignation because their party has [illegible] be now regular.

The New York [illegible] Greeley [illegible] will secure a full Republican [illegible] except in a few [illegible]

[illegible]

The Cincinnati Commercial is sure that Indiana is safe. It says: "The few Republicans in Indiana who have left the party have for some time past been a source of weakness. Their [illegible] will give strength where their treachery [illegible] last year and the year before [illegible]. Our knowledge of Indiana [illegible] warrants us in saying that [illegible] the party to which they have attached themselves, and that the [illegible] in the party caused by the desertion [illegible] will be made good and more than good. Therefore we say Indiana is sure to vote against Horace Greeley."

The New York Times, referring to the Oregon election, has the following [illegible] shot at the [illegible]: "Waiting over [illegible] the defeat would have been a singular business for the [illegible] a year ago, but [illegible]"

In pursuance of the plan of claiming everything for Greeley, even Iowa is [illegible] put down by such papers as the [illegible] for Greeley. Our neighbor saw a man [illegible] the other day, and he said that State was sure for Greeley and Brown. Now here is what a correspondent of the Chicago [illegible] writing from Iowa July 8th, says. For the preceding six months he had traveled by rail in the State every week. He was well acquainted especially in the eastern portion, and had heard nothing whatever of any Republican opposition to Grant. The correspondent was an Iowa soldier in the late war, and in all his travels through the State he had yet to find among his soldier companions one soldier who was for Greeley. From the present standpoint of the political situation he can see nothing short of 50,000 majority for Grant and Wilson.

POLITICAL OPINIONS

[illegible]

From the [illegible]

[illegible] is that either Mr Grant or Mr Greeley is to be the next President. In view of this disagreeable alternative what ought good citizens to do? Of course the action of the Baltimore Convention has not placed Democrats under the slightest obligation to vote for Mr Greeley. It is imprudent to talk of applying the party lash under any circumstances—unspeakably impudent to talk of using it to drive Democrats into the support of one of the worst embodiments of Radicalism this country has ever known. Democrats will vote as they please, or abstain from voting if they please, and they will be apt to resent with suitable warmth any attempt at caucus coercion. The question is not at all one of party obligation, but one of personal duty exclusively.

GREELEY RECEIVED INTO [illegible] DEMOCRATIC FOLD

From the Chicago Inter-Ocean

Hereafter it will be unnecessary to refer to Mr Greeley's past political course. It is sufficient that to-day he is a Democrat. He has received the emphatic indorsement of the party whose representatives hauled down the American flag at Fort Sumter, of the party that declared the war a failure, of the party that gave aid and comfort to the confederacy, of the party that prevented the [illegible] Grant. We relegate Horace Greeley to the Democracy. He has agreed to become its standard bearer, he has agreed to support its worst doctrines, and among others that of Jackson, [illegible] to the victors belong the spoils. [illegible] purity of the country.

CITY.

CONCERNING THE ROBBERY.—From Sheriff Schutz of Wasco county who arrived here last evening having in custody the three persons supposed to be concerned in the recent stage robbery near Canyon City we obtain the following additional particulars in regard to the arrest of the persons Our readers will recollect that the robbery occurred on Friday 12th inst along in the afternoon The stage reached the Dalles late on Saturday evening the 13th Sheriff Schutz as soon as he heard of the affair made preparations at once to trace the matter out and if possible discover the perpetrators Early on Sunday morning, accompanied by Jos Cunningham as a deputy he started for the scene of the late robbery This occurred at what is known as Antelope canyon, about 60 miles from the Dalles The Sheriff and his companion reached Ward's station late on Sunday evening The station is about five miles from the place where the stage was robbed On Monday morning the two started for the spot to reconnoiter and inspect for "sign" In the meantime, a Mr Hoppin and two other neighbors who lived about two miles distant from the robbing scene, had heard by some means that Schutz and Cunningham were at the station, and were after the robbers They immediately started and the two parties met near where the stage was stopped The ground was closely inspected around the place. A trail was discovered both to the road and away The one leading off was followed through the timber and underbrush for about three miles where the party came to a dense clump of trees in which it was discovered that the horses of the highwaymen had been tied The robbers had used every precaution to prevent being tracked had left their horses in a place of security and one of the number to guard them as was ascertained by human tracks, and performed the distance on foot—coming and going in different courses From the spot where the horses had been left the trail was followed some distance by Schutz and his party Finally all traces of it were lost The searching party then returned to the road and traveled backward and forward both toward the Dalles and Canyon City for over thirty miles There being five in the party, two were stationed on either side of the road and the remaining person directly in the highway Thus arranged, the whole party moved in the same direction, keeping on "a l and not approaching nearer each other In this manner the road was thoroughly "scoured" None of the robber party could possibly have left the road and made for the mountains without their tracks betraying them Not satisfied with this Schutz's party made a complete circle, compassing several settlements, but found no traces whatever Sheriff Schutz was satisfied then that, whoever the perpetrators might be, they had not yet left the settlements adjacent to where the robbery had been committed In the course of the search Schutz came in possession of some articles which enabled him to identify beyond all reasonable doubt some of the robbers. After "beating" around long enough to satisfy himself that the game was "bagged," he started to the Dalles to procure warrants for their arrest. This he did so as to be prepared for the worst as he was well aware of the desperate character of the fellows he had to deal with On his way to the Dalles he met Deputy United States Marshal Williams who had been sent by Marshal Young to bring two witnesses down to this city Schutz and Williams, after procuring the warrants started back This occurred on Thursday Before Schutz started to the Dalles he had left instructions to have a party arrested named William Bramlett, who was very strongly suspicioned During the absence of the Sheriff, Bramlett was arrested, and unguardedly made some admissions which implicated three other parties Without awaiting the return of Schutz the neighbors arrested the other implicated parties on their own responsibility The names of the others are Fred Hanson, Frank Tompkins and J W White, better known as "Billy Burton" On the return of Schutz and Williams the four prisoners were turned over to them and on Sunday were brought to the Dalles Yesterday, Tompkins, Hanson and White were brought to this city in charge of the Sheriff and Williams At the wharf they were met by United States Marshal Young, and the three prisoners were conveyed to the county jail, where they are now confined for safe keeping Bramlett is now at the Dalles, but will be brought down to day.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—The young hoodlums that infest the streets of Portland often get the best of the poor Chinamen, as "John" is generally more disposed to seek safety in flight than to stand on the defensive. But yesterday we saw a Celestial at least come off even with a little scamp Some three or four lads were seated on the sidewalk's edge with a squirt gun which was generally kept concealed until a Chinaman came along, when one of them would call "John's" attention Round he would naturally turn his head to see what was wanted, when away would fly the water full in his face This very amusing sport was kept up for some time, when at length along came a Celestial Another call and another squirt of water was thrown on his Mongolian features. But instead of running away as the others had done, he wiped the water from his almond orbs and made for the aggressor He caught the urchin and gave him several severe slaps in the face and wound up the lesson with a sound kick in the region of the posterior The boy laughed at the other side of his mouth pocketed his indignities but took good care to complain to no one of his just chastisement

GENERAL ROW.—A general row and free fight took place yesterday in front of the Police Court room on Alder street It appears that a colored man was passing along in front of the saloon just below the court room His wife a half breed Indian, was also along with him and another woman Some impudent fellow who was sitting in the doorway plucked the under garment of one of the women and made some insulting remark to her For this piece of affrontry the colored man gave him a vigorous kick, which sent him sprawling on the floor Another spectator named James Barry, sprang to the rescue of his comrade, but was promptly knocked down by the colored pugilist, who was proceeding to chastise him severely, when some person pulled him off Barry sprang to his feet like a hungry tiger and made for his antagonist again He was again knocked down and would have been well pounded for his pains if the police officers had not interfered. The matter was investigated before Judge Denny, yesterday afternoon and the two parties who were the aggressors were fined

FASHIONABLE NOTES.—Dolly Varden has flown to another clime She is no longer heard of

Very light shades of kid gloves are now worn on the promenade

Striped materials are in favor for traveling dresses this season

White ace sacks w n e gat re are stylish and elegant

A white cloth mantle n v em ed is the fashionable gaw sp

Pink and lemon colors are no usno ab e ot ors, but should be associated with black or chocolate brown

Walking s with the Camargo dress are exceedingly elegant and e des ed to endure a very long popularity

We are glad to see that heels of exaggerated height are not now considered good taste or fit to be worn by any lady

Jackets in soft shades of cashmere richly embroidered are considered the thing just now for cool days in door wear

FINE INSTRUMENT.—We were shown yesterday at the office of Dr Dickson in this city a large compound microscope which that gentleman has just received from London The instrument is of an improved construction of superb workmanship, and as a complete and perfect piece of mechanism is well worthy of inspection It is probable there is nothing on the coast which in these respects will compare with this microscope The instrument was manufactured by Messrs Powell & Lealand London me dea can be formed of the value of the instrument when it cost at the manufactory £120 sterling besides expressage to this place The magnifying power extends as high as 10 000 diameters This instrument is of great importance in diseases the kidneys and other scientific purposes dy s powerful magnifying power it can readily detect human blood from the f any and f an animal In the investigation of murder cases where the test has been submitted en e a uod by these microscopes has ent ma e ta a st nce in the cause of us ce n r ng r ime and b ng ing its perpetra rs unishment

THE J A egular Pike county Missourian one of Pap Price's recruits, clad in homespun jeans with a pair of number 1 cow hide brogans fresh from Long Thomas was seen rushing ant cal y a and the city the ther day insisting upon that he was ab r nder an o tara the m ams As he gave n e ien e an ndu geu n a lengthy spree, or even a temporary overd se f benzine he was asked the reason for thinking himself thus attacked Pulling out a copy of the Herald and holding the editorial page up before him he replied "That now perhaps you wouldn't believe it but I'm dogoned if I didn't see at the top of that paper For President Horace Greeley Of course that can't be no such words that and I must be laborin under be jimjams Darnation but the next thing will be snakes in my boots sure

I I CHERRY.—We have been shown a cherry bough growing in the yard of H F Bl ck in this city which certainly presents an anomaly in the fruit bearing line A new variety the name of which is not known has been grafted into another variety The grafted limb bears fruit every month commencing at the usual cherry season and extending through the first of October On the same branch can be found the fruit in every stage of maturity from the size of a garden pea up to a full grown lemon The fruit of this strange variety is very large luscious and of a delightful flavor Whether this is a freak of nature or the natural result of grafting is not known but if it is the latter it will be a great acquisition to the fruit growing interests as the average yield is very materially increased

A SCOUNDREL.—Yesterday evening just at dark as the daughters two in number, of one of our prominent citizens were passing up Salmon street a ruffian, described by them as being rather tall and pretty well dressed stopped in front of them and commenced using some very vile language when they ran with all their might He still persisted in his insulting language until they were out of his hearing The villain was doubtless drunk but that will not save him from a very rough handling if he is caught repeating such an act Tar and feathers but tar at that would be no more than a suitable coat for such as he Such characters are not very scarce in our city and the penitentiary ought to be disgraced with their presence

TAKES COMMAND.—Gen R Granger Bevet Brigadier General U S A and Colonel commanding the 21st U S Infantry, arrived in this city overland from California on Sunday evening He takes command of the regiment stationed at Fort Vancouver, three companies of which are now there and seven more of which will arrive from Arizona in a month or sooner if relieved by others already ordered Gen Granger graduated in the class of 1838 served in the war in Mexico and took an active and important part in the war for the Union

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A case of assault and battery upon the person of Dr G W Brown by William Beale was tried in the Police Court yesterday Beale used to work for Brown, but was discharged about a month ago He got drunk yesterday and went up to the drug store of Brown and threatened to cut him with a knife, and compelled the Doctor to call assistance For this disposition to do some scientific carving without a license and at the expense of good order and law, Beale was fined $10 and the usual costs of the Court

DEAD.—James Gray Flowerdew, member of the firm of Messrs Hewett, Flowerdew & Co, and British Vice Consul at Portland died last evening at 10 o'clock, after a painful illness of over six weeks His death was the result of serious injuries which he received some time ago Mr Flowerdew was a native of Dundee, Scotland unmarried and aged 37 years He had resided in this city about two years previous to his death He leaves many friends to mourn an irreparable loss

FINED.—The case of the State vs William P O Reilly for an assault on the person of A B Hallock, came up before Judge Denny yesterday When called, the defendant withdrew his former plea and pleaded guilty to the charge The Court then proceeded to fine him $30 and costs which will amount to about $70 William not being able to "liquidate," was sentenced for 30 days

INMATES.—During the past week two more female patients have been added to the Insane Asylum One was from Yamhill county and one from this county The latter patient was a former inmate, but had been discharged some time ago A return of insanity rendered her removal to the Asylum necessary

GEO S WRIGHT.—This steamer reached port from Sitka on Sunday evening with a full freight, and a few cabin and steerage passengers She sailed from Sitka on the 13th, and had a very pleasant voyage throughout The Wright is advertised to sail hence on the 1st August

DISLOCATED.—A man named Wurtemburg, a resident of East Portland, while working about one of the wharves, a few days since fell off a wagon and dislocated his left shoulder Dr Dickson was called and reduced the luxation He will soon be able to resume labor

MEETING.—The friends of Hon H W Corbett are requested to meet at the Police Court room, corner of Alder and Front streets to day at 4 o clock P M, to make arrangements for tendering Mr Corbett a public reception some evening this week, after his arrival

ARGUMENT.—We learn that the argument in the great real estate suit now pending before the Circuit Court which has consumed the last eight or ten days, will commence to day some time It is not known how long the arguments will last

FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.—A young man was arraigned before Judge Denny yesterday on a charge of having embezzled the sum of $30 The matter will have a hearing this morning The defendant, in default of bail, was committed

GREEN CORN.—The Dalles boat brought down last evening a quantity of green corn from east of the mountains These are the first roasting ears of the season and will be a great delicacy in the market—prices ranging accordingly

HURT.—A small boy named Gordon residing at the corner of First and Harrison streets while playing on a roof yesterday evening slipped and fell He struck on the back part of his head and was severely injured

FESTIVAL.—The members of the East Portland Lodge I O G T, held an ice cream festival at their hall last evening A very pleasant time was experienced

The Wear and Tear of Life

The cares ... anxieties and infirmities of life have much to do with shattering it as disease They are in fact the source of many ailments and physical disabilities Nervous weakness dyspepsia affections of the liver disturbances of the bowels headaches hypochondria and monomania are among these distressing fruits It is therefore of great importance that persons whose minds are oppressed with heavy business responsibilities or harassed by family troubles, or excited by speculation or perplexed by a multiplicity of enterprises or in any way overtaxed or overworked should keep up their stamina by the daily use of a wholesome tonic Thousands of persons thus circumstanced are enabled to bear up against the difficulties in which they are involved and to retain their strength health and mental clearness, by the regular use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Diseases which are prone to attack the body when debilitated and broken down by over much brain work or exhausting physical labor, are kept at bay by the resistant power with which this incomparable tonic endows the nervous system and the vital organs At this season when the heat is evaporating the elements of strength from every pore an invigorant is absolutely essential to the safety and comfort of the public and is required even by the more robust if they desire to keep their athletic capabilities in statu quo Hence a course of Hostetter's Bitters is particularly useful at this period of the year as a defence against the invisible disease that is in sultry atmosphere It is the most potent of all preventive medicines and for all complaints which affect the stomach the liver and the bowels and interfere with the perfect digestion and assimilation of food ... standard remedy

Memories.

[illegible]

The [illegible] sky [illegible]
[illegible]
The weary hearts and weary feet
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
Beneath [illegible]
And [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

I see a family group at home,
The winter hearth at side;
The sire relates a story true,
An ancient story strange;
And one I know among the rest
With childish rapture fill'd,
Who lists in breathless wonderment—
Whose interest is thrill'd.

And one I see among that group—
[illegible] like a seraph now—
She smooths that wandering child's fair hair
Back from his waxen brow;
She bends and on his parted lips,
She gives the stainless kiss,
What from her heart ascends the prayer?
Up for his happiness.

How pure, how chaste doth she appear,
The eyes these quick tears now,
How sacred and how calmly fair,
The love-light on her brow.
How doth these earthly passions droop,
That once seemed far above;
How shrinks the world to littleness,
Beside her spotless love!

I see a village churchyard now
Where drooping willows weep,
Where many a stone keeps brief record,
Where loved and lost ones sleep.
An humble slab amid the rest,
With single word I see;
'Tis almost faded from the stone,
But not from memory.

I see a lonely ruin now,
Sad, silent as the dead,
And there where merry laughter rose,
Complains the owl instead;
Whilst through the fallen roof streams down
Pale Luna's silver rays
Upon the hearth, where gathered once
The lights of other days.

Beneath a sunny, cloudless sky,
Upon life's broad highway,
I see a youth step bravely forth
Into the busy day—
The sunny sky becomes o'ercast,
The stars fade dim and few,
And round him shrieks the wintry blast,
As faint he struggles through.

From out my chamber mirror looks,
A pallid careworn face,
Upon whose etched and haggard brow,
Time many a scar doth trace;
Upon whose etched and haggard brow,
The hairs are gray and few,
From out whose features, thin and wan,
The grinning skull looks through.

Some of England's Treasures.

A wonderful little Blue Book has just been ordered by the House of Commons to be printed, which gives a list of the most important sepulchral monuments in England, drawn up by the London Society of Antiquarians for the information of the Government. "The veriest Philistine of all Gath, writes a London journal, would turn over its pages with reverence, and gaze upon its record tenderly. It tells us of famous men, and of our fathers that begat us—men who have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported—men who bore rule, renowned for their power, leaders of the people by their counsel and by their knowledge of learning. Our very breath bates in the presence of this great assembly of mighty dead, and a dim awe creeps over us, as we were treading the Cave of Macpelah—as we stood on "the lone and level sands," beneath the pedestal of which Shelley sings earlier than all history, prior to tradition itself, with the weird words: "My name is Ozymandias, King of Kings. Look on my words, ye mighty and despair," graven on it in letters which mock time itself. Kings the precedence of ordinary mortals (the same journal remarks) now as in the days of Homer; and the Royal monuments which crowd Westminster Abbey need no enumeration. Who has not gazed on the marble shrine which covers the remains of Edward the Confessor, on the urn erected in memory of the hapless Princes, Edward and Richard, Duke of York; on the tomb of Elizabeth, where the great Tudor Queen sleeps side by side with her sister Mary; on the marble canopy which marks the resting place of the luckless Queen of Scots?

And yet the noble old Abbey holds but a tithe of our worthies, and not all even of our kings. The wicked Red William lies in Winchester Cathedral, John at Worcester, Edward II. at Gloster, Edward the Black Prince—a king in all but fact—at Canterbury. And, when we leave Royalty, our list widens, and there we find hardly a spot in England which cannot show some tomb or cenotaph bearing a name more imperishable than the very marble upon which it is cut. In Chelsea Old Church a simple slab hands down the memory of Sir Thomas Moore. St. Paul's Crypt holds a fragment of the monument erected to Sir Nicholas; the monument itself perished in the Great Fire. Francis Bacon, his son—why will Philistines call him "Lord Bacon?"—is buried in the parish church of St. Michael, at St. Albans. Sir William Gascoigne, the Lord Chief Justice, who committed a Prince, lies in the little church at Harewood. Lord Chief Justice Lyttleton, he upon whom Coke commented, rests in Worcester Cathedral. Bishop Burnet has a tablet to his memory in Clerkenwell Church. John Gower and Phillip Massinger repose in St. Saviour's, Southwark; Pope's monument is in the parish church at Twickenham. And, to travel back through the centuries for one great name with which to close our list—there is still in the old Church of St. Giles, Cripplegate, a plain marble slab which marks the resting place of the author of "Paradise Lost."

The River Nile.

From a contemporary we take the following interesting paragraphs relative to Dr. Livingstone's explorations and the sources of the Nile;

The fact that Livingstone's late discoveries which turn the Gambeze eastward into the Nile, instead of having been as presented by earlier explorers a tributary of the Leambeye, have lengthened the Nile out to the longest river in the world. The main Nile courses—and very crookedly too—through seventeen degrees of latitude from Kartoom to Alexandria. At Kartoom the two branches unite. One, the Blue Nile, comes in from the mountains of Abyssinia to the southeast, the mysteries of this branch have long been explored. The other branch, known as the White Nile, forms that part of the great river for so many centuries folded impenetrably to civilized man. Some hundreds of miles above Kartoom the White Nile is lost amid marshes, jungles and lakes. It was the difficulty of getting through these hot, humid, sickly regions that nearly always baffled European explorers. Speke and Baker managed to get as far south as the two great lakes which they named after the queen of England and her husband. There it was ascertained that the lakes were only parts of the river, and that it entered them from the south. A later exploration traced the river to another lake, and here the world was told was its true head and source. Dr. Livingstone, after a quarter of a century's experience in tracing up rivers and establishing geographical facts in Central Africa, had another theory about the Nile; and that was that the Gambeze, a large river from the southwest, and which the Portuguese geographers made tributary to the Leambye, was an affluent of the Nile, running north.

It has cost him six years to work out the problem. He finds the Gambeze is 700 miles long, and if this is so, then the White Nile, from the head of this extreme southern affluent, must be at least 2,400 miles long. If this be true it gives the Nile a length of 4,700 miles.

Ancient Music.

Modern people have little or no idea of the character of ancient music or musical instruments. Even the most artistic of them were rude and unskillful. The Egyptian flute was only a cow's horn, with three or four holes in it, their harp or lyre had only three strings, and was very small, being held by one hand. The Jewish trumpets that made the walls of Jericho fall down, were only rams' horns; they had no other instrumental music but by percussion, of which the greatest boast made was the psaltery, a small, triangular harp or lyre with wire strings, and struck with an iron stick or a the their stick but was something like a bagpipe; the timbrel was a tambourine; and the dulcimer was a horizontal harp with wire strings and struck with a stick like the psaltery. They had no written music, and scarcely a vowel in their language, and yet, according to Josephus, had two hundred thousand musicians playing at the dedication of the temple of Solomon. Mozart would have died in such a concert in the greatest of agonies.

The Detroit Press regrets the removal of a family to Saginaw, whose boy Johnny started out two years ago by shooting himself. Two months after he choked himself with a fish bone. A few days after he built a fire in the barn and called out the steamers. He then swallowed a top, got run over by an ice wagon, fell into the river, was lost for three days, and first and last he has been a fountain of local news whose value cannot be estimated on a slate four feet square.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

MONDAY EVENING, July 22, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 114⅛.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87½ buying, 88½ selling.

The steamer Geo. S. Wright arrived last evening from Sitka. She brought 105 tons of freight—84 tons of coal and 22 tons furs.

The brig Perpetua is now loading with lumber at Centreville for San Francisco.

The bark Abamia is now due here from San Francisco with an assorted cargo.

No vessels were seen off the bar as the steamer Wright crossed over.

During next month vessels from the United Kingdom, with railroad iron will probably begin to arrive. Some are now nearly due. They are expected to take return cargoes of wheat.

An invoice of one hundred doz Tubs and Pails from the factory of Messrs. Holladay, Jr., & Biles, Oregon City, will be shipped to Honolulu by the Falkinburg on her return trip to that port. This Ware is made of the best Oregon wood, and is of superior finish and excellence. Its introduction into the various markets where it is being sent will attract favorable notice.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Ordinance No. 1189.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE TIME and manner of improving that part of North Second street lying between E and G streets.

The city of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The proposed improvement of that part of North Second street lying between E and G streets, shall be completed on or before the 1st day of October, 1872.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all planks, timbers, or other obstacles and perishable materials (sidewalks, and crosswalks of the proper width and grade excepted.) If the obstructions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent lots within three days from the service of notice by the Street Commissioner, they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 3. The improvement shall consist of grading to the established grade.

Section 4. The work to be done, and materials furnished shall correspond with the provisions of, and under the restrictions contained in Sections 6, of Ordinance No. 793, entitled "An Ordinance in relation to the improvement of streets."

Section 5. The contractor shall take entire charge of the work during its progress, and shall be responsible for any loss or accident, resulting from carelessness or neglect.

Section 6. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for proposals, receive bids and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders for the improvement specified in this Ordinance.

Section 7. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property, and the Street Commissioner.

Passed the Common Council July 17, 1872.

W. S. CALDWELL,
Auditor and Clerk.

Approved July 19, 1872.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

[illegible]

The Republican Party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses, and has warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with firm hand the resultant disorders of a great war, and initiated a wise policy toward the Indians. [illegible] enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted [illegible] been given to actual settlers, [illegible] rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. In the form of National currency it has provided for the National credit [illegible] the most extraordinary burdens. It now negotiates new bonds at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions from the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen. Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been avoided and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men, composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered to rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system, by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a lifetenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current expenditures, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and the revenue, as far as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations, which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and to promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, once a subject always a subject, having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Government, and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way proposed for reduction in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of resorting to constitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disgusted faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz.: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy too work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. jy6d4t
